

Prescription Drug Monitoring Programs

States With Authority to Monitor Schedule V Substances

¹Oklahoma's PDMP statute excludes from monitoring those Schedule V substances containing any detectable quantity of pseudoephedrine.

²Tennessee's law authorizes the monitoring of Schedule V substances which have been identified by the controlled substances database advisory committee and the Board of Pharmacy as demonstrating a potential for abuse.