

Status of State Prescription Drug Monitoring Programs (PDMPs)

¹Washington has temporarily suspended its PMP operations due to budgetary constraints. A bill was proposed during the most recent legislative session that would have allowed for the statewide operation of a privately funded PMP, however the bill did not pass, and the Washington Legislature is no longer in session.

²The proposed New Hampshire PMP bill failed to pass a committee vote and is unlikely to become law this session.