

Status of State Prescription Drug Monitoring Programs (PDMPs)

<sup>1</sup>Washington has temporarily suspended its PMP operations due to budgetary constraints. A bill was proposed during the most recent legislative session that would have allowed for the statewide operation of a privately funded PMP, however the bill did not pass, and the Washington Legislature is no longer in session.