Unsolicited PMP Reports/Info to Prescribers, Pharmacists, Law Enforcement and Licensing Entities

<sup>2</sup> North Carolina provides unsolicited reports to the Attorney General who has the discretion to forward the information to law enforcement.

<sup>3</sup> Michigan send alerts to physicians when a patient surpasses the threshold but does not send the actual report.
