This project was supported by Cooperative Agreement No. 2012-DC-BX-K002 awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The Bureau of Justice Assistance is a component of the Office of Justice Programs, which also includes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the National Institute of Justice, the office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the Office for Victims of Crime, the Community Capacity Development Office, and the Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking. Points of view or opinions in this document are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.

<sup>1</sup> In addition to those substances scheduled by statute or regulation in Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, and Oregon, those states also incorporate the federal schedules by reference. Substances included in the federal schedules are, therefore, included as being banned by those states as well.

Note that due to different spellings and the different ways in which the molecular structures of these substances are written in state laws and regulations, this chart may not capture all of the substances banned in each state.
