Internet Trafficking in Pharmaceuticals

- Scope of the Problem in the U.S.
  - In recent years there has been an explosion of on-line pharmacies on the Internet.
  - Number of online pharmacies and size of the market for rogue drug sellers is unknown and difficult to trace.
  - Public Safety

RxPATROL™

- Pharmacy robberies have escalated,
- Pharmacists fear for their safety,
- Law enforcement resources are stretched,
- Multi-jurisdictional coordination is difficult,
- Loss Prevention professionals and law enforcement identified a need for an information Clearing House.

Rx Pattern Analysis Tracking Robberies & Other Losses

RxPATROL® is a collaborative effort between industry and law enforcement designed to collect, collate, analyze and disseminate pharmacy theft information in an attempt to:

- help protect pharmacists,
- guard against potential robberies and burglaries, and
- assist law enforcement to apprehend and successfully prosecute criminals

Directed by a senior law enforcement executive and utilizing a sophisticated software platform to analyze theft information for trends and patterns, RxPATROL® will gather information from pharmacy theft reports and serve as a clearing house to disseminate pertinent leads to the law enforcement community.
